Students should be invested in their learning and growth in and out of the classroom.

“It is not only what we do, but also what we do not do, for which we are accountable.” – Molière

Mr. Tan

PE and Health Teacher

Philosophy - The things we learn in school should add value to our lives in more areas than just in school alone.

Mrs. Gonzales (Resource Specialist)

Resource Specialist main responsibilities: providing instruction and guidance, reporting to parents and teachers, monitoring student progress, and implementing individualized education programs.

Purpose of SPED – “Special education is instruction that is specially designed to meet the unique needs of a child with a disability. This means education that is developed to address that child's specific needs in order to achieve his or her highest learning potential.

“My mission as a teacher is to help my students realize that through learning, they can enhance their life in a positive way. I want to help all my students believe in themselves and through that belief, take on the challenges of life and go forward.”

Ms. Madden

kmadden@newmillenniumschool.org

★ 10th English      ★ 12th English (ERWC)

★ My goal is to provide all of my students with a welcoming, creative and fun classroom environment where they feel encouraged to ask thoughtful questions, have difficult and important discussions, and to challenge themselves to produce work that they are proud of. I want my students to leave my classroom feeling like confident readers and writers, no matter where life takes them.

Mr. Petterson

Classes: Government, Economics, Geography, Debate

Classroom Statement: My classroom is and will continue to be a positive and safe learning environment where students engage with rigorous coursework.
