1. Narrative description of the Proposition 28 arts education programs funded (2500 character limit).

New Millennium Secondary school with the support of Prop 28 funding, our dedicated art teacher has enriched our arts education program by providing students with hands-on learning experiences and expanding creative opportunities. The funds has allowed the teacher to take students on several enjoyable, but meaningful field trips to various museums, art displays, and cultural institutions. These trips expose students to a wide range of artistic styles, techniques, and histories, inspiring them to explore their own creativity and develop a deeper appreciation for the arts. The students are able to take that same passion back to the classroom with the teacher create their own art display for the community. Prop 28 funds have also been used to purchased essential art supplies and materials tailored to the diverse needs of our students. Materials such as paints, brushes, paper, and other creative tools enables students to experiment with different media and develop new artistic skills.
